PLAINTIFF'S OPPOSITION TO DEFENDANT'S REQUEST FOR ORAL ARGUMENT ON PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO REMAND TO STATE COURT

COMES NOW the Plaintiff, Pearson's Pharmacy, Inc. ("Plaintiff" or "Pearson's Pharmacy"), by and through its undersigned counsel of record, and provides the following Opposition to Defendant's Request for Oral Argument. In support of its Opposition, Plaintiff states the following:

1. Typically, oral argument is not held on motions to remand in this District. Moreover, Defendant provides no factual or evidentiary basis for its request for a hearing on the motion to remand. Plaintiff's motion to remand is fully briefed and awaiting the Court's ruling. In deciding the motion to remand, the Court must only determine whether diversity of citizenship exists under the Class Action Fairness Act.

2. Plaintiff does not believe that oral argument will aid the Court in making its decision on Plaintiff's motion to remand. This is certainly the case in light of the fact that Defendant fails to provide any justification for its request. Additionally, Plaintiff asserts that oral argument will not serve to further the interests of judicial economy and will only delay the Court's consideration of Plaintiff's motion.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Plaintiff requests the Court deny Defendant's Request for Oral Argument.
